

	Gold	You have shown over a long period of time that you make the right choices, set an example to others and make the classroom a great place for you, your classmates and the adults who work there. Your teacher is so impressed that they want you to go and see Mr Nixon so he knows how well you have done.
	Silver	You are setting a great example to the rest of your class through your excellent behaviour. Your teacher will give you extra praise because you are showing everyone the 'Ashleigh way'.
	Green	You are following all the class rules and helping yourself learn. Your teacher will have noticed how sensible you are being.
	Yellow	The teacher has had to remind you for a second or third time about the choices you are making. You have been moved and there will be a consequence which may mean missing some of your free time to complete the work you have missed or to talk with an adult about the choices you have made. You may need to sit in the thinking area in your class to help you think about the right choices.
	Red	You have continued to make the wrong choices. You need to go to another class to think about your choices. Your parents will be told. If you continue to make the wrong choice Mr Nixon will be called.
