

Geography Curriculum Map

Ashleigh Primary & Nursery

Content Big Idea Question

	A1	A2	Sp1	Sp2	Sum1	Sum2
Y1	Where is Ashleigh Primary School? Some features of the earth occur naturally and some are made by people. Describing the local area with geographical terms.		Is the weather the same everywhere? The weather and climate vary according to seasons and depend on location on the planet. Weather, climate and seasons.		Where in the world is Paddington Bear? The earth can be represented in maps which can show human and/or physical features. Paddington sends postcards from around the world. He travels to a new place and has a question for the class. Using an Atlas. Using maps to locate continents, countries and human and physical features on global scale. Make a map of Paddington's travels.
Y2	Do you know where Paddington is today? The world is divided into countries and we live in		Where are all the eggs?		What is the journey to school like in a range of places around the world?

	England which is part of the United Kingdom. Paddington Bear's tour of Britain. Using map of the world, characteristics of the countries of the UK and capital cities.		Maps can be designed and used for a range of purposes Draw a map of school. Make a map using the symbols, keys Purposeful maps, children make a map for a reason.		Places vary from each other according to their human and physical features. Case study: Kampong Ayer Why are some places hot and some colder? Revisit: climate learning
--	---	--	---	--	--	--

	A1	A2	Sp1	Sp2	Sum1	Sum2
Y3	What makes Wymondham special? The place we live is one of many places but is unique. Locate and describe places in the world beginning with their own. Local fieldwork – Why do people want to live in Wymondham?		If Europe had a capital city, which city should it be? The importance of places is influenced by human and physical factors. Locate the main countries of Europe and identify their capital cities.		Why do Earthquakes happen? Sometimes the natural world is hazardous to the human world. But these events are limited to certain places at different times. Plate tectonics, understand that the world has changed over millions of years.

Y4	Why is the Amazon rainforest shrinking? The natural world is a resource for us as humans but we have a responsibility to maintain it. Amazon rainforest study. Climate and biomes.		What's the best city to go to university in the UK? The United Kingdom is 'one country' but has a variety of geographical features. National parks, rivers, areas of outstanding national beauty, counties, landmarks, employment, culture.		What is a river? Geographical features are part of wider systems which connect to a global system. River Tiffey fieldwork
Y5	What is Greece like today? Regions within Europe can have strong similarities and differences to where we	Would you visit Iceland? The natural world is not always predictable – even though humans try their best to	Should we save Happisburgh? Physical geography changes and people have to adapt or find		Can mountains move? Mountains are formed over long periods of time by physical processes.

	live. Places change over time. Case Study: Modern Greece. Geographical features of a place.	understand what's going to happen. Volcanoes and Earthquakes and tourism.	expensive/innovative ways to adapt. Coast fieldwork. Coastal erosion.		Mountain regions.
Y6		Would you be lost without an iPhone? Maps can be used to navigate but their nature has changed over time. Use maps, digital maps and compasses to navigate	What is the price of fashion? The economies of different countries differ and are interdependent - much of what is sold in the UK is not produced here. Investigate the Geography of clothes and the textile industry.	Why do so many people live in megacities? The population of a place depends on a variety of human and physical factors. Population. Migration and it's causes.	Should we ban tourism from the Norfolk Broads? Human activity can enhance at the same time as it damages the environment. Broads field trip	